

Boulders Tennis Players Association (BTPA)

BTPA Tennis Play

The Boulders Tennis Players Association (BTPA) is open to all Boulders Club members, associate tennis members, and season rental guests with an interest in member-organized tennis. BTPA activities include five organized playing groups:

- Men's and women's intermediate level tennis and an advanced group open to men and women. These groups play twice weekly on specific days and times. The intermediate groups are primarily social while the advanced group plays at a competitive skill level.
- The long-standing Saturday morning Boulders Club member tennis focuses on social tennis across all levels of play.
- Monday Morning Tennis (MMT), which plays at the Boulders and other area clubs and private courts, is primarily competitive. It is organized by a rotating monthly scheduler.

Groups are scheduled by members of BTPA, but all play is open to any Boulders Club member. We welcome new members at all skill levels as well as visiting Boulders Club family members and Boulders Resort guests to join in our regularly scheduled matches.

These groups play tennis throughout the year. Beginning just after dawn during the summer!
